

The Days Are Just Packed!

An ironic photo for me to use; Siem Reap's famous/infamous "Pub Street". I'm not much of a customer for Pub Street, at 4-6 (not 46) alcoholic drinks/year, but at some point in this trip, I'll add one more to that total.

Best place to catch up on my adventures would be via Facebook, since it's so easy to post photos and locations there. It's not a private page; anybody friend or foe is free to check it out. <https://www.facebook.com/ChainReactionBicycles>
