

It's official- We tested it- West Old LaHonda is open for business!

It's really finished. West Old LaHonda is officially open to cyclists. The signs say "local traffic only" but it's been confirmed with the county that cyclists are included in that description. Kevin and I rode it on Thursday. They even swept most of the debris off the pavement! More soon. I did post a video of it on our Facebook Page.