

Nice Easter ride, complete with Bunnies and an angry Sheriff

A short, almost-legal ride for Easter, including a bit faster time than I expected up Old LaHonda (23:38), noticing they've removed the bench AGAIN from its second location on West Old LaHonda, appropriate rabbit sightings, and a large accumulation of people at the top of Kings that was drawing the attention and disapproval of the County Sheriff (as seen in the photo above).