

Annual TurkeyDay Trot Details

8am, corner of Olive Hill & Canada Road, same place we start the regular Tuesday & Thursday-morning ride. The plan is Old LaHonda, La Honda, Pescadero, San Gregorio & Tunitas. Also planned is wet weather. If this was a normal Tuesday/Thursday ride, the plan would be unalterable, but due to questionable weather, I do not guarantee we'll be doing the full ride. I've got my rain bike ready though, and at least two of us (myself and my son) will be there, at 8am, ready to ride.

We should be back by 1pm at the latest, plenty of time to eat and then later watch the 49er game. And plenty of time to wish we could have ridden a bit later, when it's not supposed to be raining!
