

Most-exciting race finish ever? Close anyway!

Forward to 43:30 into this video for the fun~ The setup- This is the last 7k of the Tour of Turkey, Stage 7, May 1 2012. The guys off the front are getting chased down by the pack, when one guy, Keisse, takes off on his own. You'd think this was going to be a normal pack-chases-leader and gets him just before the line. You would be so wrong; what happens is unexpected and has the announcers (and possibly yourself) screaming. If you want to shorten it down, go to about 47 minutes. --Mike--
