

Nice ride through the park

West Old LaHonda, of course!

Big group, nice morning, rode strongly on the initial climb up through Huddart Park, where I usually die. What more need be said?

According to Strava I had a best-time (for myself) on the section through the park, beating my prior best time by over 20 seconds. Works for me! Of course I completely fell apart for the rest of the climb up Kings.